without further injury.

J. J. Gibson, Ann Arbor's successful photographer, has been awarded the privilege of making photographs of visitors to the world's fair, on the grounds. The compliment is a deserved one. Mr. Gibson is to be the only portrait photographer on the grounds.

An effort is being made by Mrs.